

1. The first group of respondents (Group 1) consisted of 100 individuals who were randomly selected from the general population. They were surveyed via telephone interviews.

2. The second group (Group 2) consisted of 150 individuals who were recruited from local community centers and public libraries. They were surveyed via paper questionnaires.

3. The third group (Group 3) consisted of 200 individuals who were recruited from a local university's psychology department. They were surveyed via online surveys.

4. The fourth group (Group 4) consisted of 120 individuals who were recruited from a local hospital's outpatient clinic. They were surveyed via paper questionnaires.

5. The fifth group (Group 5) consisted of 80 individuals who were recruited from a local senior citizens center. They were surveyed via paper questionnaires.

6. The sixth group (Group 6) consisted of 110 individuals who were recruited from a local high school. They were surveyed via paper questionnaires.

7. The seventh group (Group 7) consisted of 90 individuals who were recruited from a local business community. They were surveyed via telephone interviews.

8. The eighth group (Group 8) consisted of 130 individuals who were recruited from a local government office. They were surveyed via paper questionnaires.

9. The ninth group (Group 9) consisted of 105 individuals who were recruited from a local religious organization. They were surveyed via paper questionnaires.

10. The tenth group (Group 10) consisted of 140 individuals who were recruited from a local sports team. They were surveyed via paper questionnaires.

Justin I. King

2111

[illegible]

INTERFERENCE SEARCHED
Class	Subclass	Date	Examiner

[illegible]